VOLUME II. BERKELEY, CAL., WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 30, 1895. NUMBER 166

VERY HARMONIOUS.

THE WEST BERKELEY PROGRESSIVE CLUB

In Line for the Wharf at West Berkeley and for Other Improvements.

W. B. Progressive Club.

The members of the club were on hand last evening, not only in good time but in goodly numbers. They were in fine spirits, too, and looked upon the cheerful side of affairs. The meeting was called to order promptly, and routine work of the club was gone into. Partial reports were made as to the amount of business that would come over the wharf so much needed. So far as information could be obtained it was very satisfactory indeed. The full committee will make a complete report later on, in the meantime seeking all the information which can be got hold of.

It was stated upon good authority that if the wharf should be built responsible parties would put on two ferry boats. This proposition comes from a party who is entirely new in the improvement plan, and able to carry out anything he goes into.

It was also stated that in case the wharf should be built the cable road now built on San Pablo avenue would be changed into an electric one, and extended beyond the town line north of Berkeley.

Parties interested also stated that if a wharf was built as talked of the Stockton boats would make a landing here, and grain from the San Joaquin Valley could be landed here much cheaper than at the prices now charged in San Francisco.

Many valuable enterprises are found to hinge upon the building of the proposed wharf. There are not those only already talked of but as the project becomes advertised many other propositions will be brought forward all to the advantage of the town of Berkeley. In fact the new wharf appears to be a key to the situation of the future prosperity of the town and as soon as it is in practical operation the business of Berkeley will take a start and push forward with a rapidity that even the best well wisher would be astonished at.

The matter of better sidewalks at the West End was also discussed. The question arose how to get the attention of the Street Superintendent directed to the many sidewalks on graded streets which are very much in want of needed repairs. Life and limb are in danger in many cases. It was thought with the present force in that office someone might be detailed to make a personal examination not only of the sidewalks at the West End but all over town and so get the necessary repairs made before the rainy season sets in.

A Young Man in Business.

All people like encouragement and none more so than the young. When our grown up young men make a start in the world to build up their fortunes all praiseworthy actions should be commended.

Emile Monterichard is one of Berkeley's young men who has succeeded his father in the meat business at West Berkeley. He has had considerable experience under his father's supervision and desires not only the patronage heretofore extended but desires new customers. He will keep all kinds of meat, fresh and first class always on hand and trusts by fair treatment to have a fair share of public patronage.

To Test An Ordinance.

A. Berg, one of Berkeley's raided liquor sellers, brought suit yesterday in justice Clift's court in Oakland against Town Marshal Lloyd and Deputies W. F. Esmond and W. S. Davis to recover $54, which he says is the value of goods seized from his premises, and the expense he has been to in trying to recover the liquors. The case will probably be a test of the ordinance under which the seizures were made.

He Displayed a Pistol.

Herbert E. Powell, a telegraph operator, was committed to the County Jail yesterday afternoon by Justice Clift for contempt of court. Powell drew a pistol in court and nearly frightened two young women into hysterics. He did not intend to do any shooting, but the display of the weapon was sufficient to cause the Judge to commit the young man for twenty-four hours.

Incidentally, Powell was a witness for his mother, who keeps a lodging-house at 668 Ninth street. She was the defendant in a suit brought by Miss Dora Harden, who claimed that Mrs. Howell was holding her trunk for an unpaid board bill. Miss Harden is an attractive young woman and it is said that young Powell had been smitten and had his affectionate advances repelled very coldly.

At any rate he was ready to cast his lot with his mother and went on the witness stand to tell the corroborative story necessary to keep the trunk in the possession of Mrs. Powell. It was during the time that Mrs. Powell was on the witness stand that the scene occurred which caused her son's subsequent arrest. Powell drew the pistol from his hip pocket and placed it in his side coat pocket. The movement was seen by Miss Harden and a companion, who called a constable's attention to it. Powell was disarmed, but protested he had a right to carry the weapon, as he had a permit from Mayor Davie. After Justice Clift had given judgment against Mrs. Powell he lectured young Powell severely.

Runaway Boys Arrested.

Oscar Scott, John O'Hare and John Clark, aged, respectively, 12, 13 and 11 years, are in the County Jail, where they were placed yesterday by Constable Weldon. The boys were inmates of the Fred Finch Orphanage, but left that institution Monday on their way to Japan, where they were to engage in the war against China. They had got as far as the county road when the constable fell upon them.

The boys had been reading old papers telling of the war in the Orient, and seemed very much surprised when told that the war was over. They acted as though a little disappointed, too.

HE IS WANTED.

A YOUNG MAN FORMERLY OF BERKELEY

Wanted for Collecting Money that Belonged to Others—Other News.

He Is Wanted.

For the past year or more a young man named George E. Shoals, who was connected with the Advocate as an all round man, has disappeared and is badly wanted by his creditors.

Some months ago he and Fred Marquand purchased the Illustrated Pacific States from Dewey & Co. of San Francisco, and not having the facilities for issuing it at that time they contracted with Dewey & Co. to get it out for them. When it was issued the young men did not have the money to pay for it and it was refused them. They were, however, given a few copies. These copies Shoals took and upon showing them to advertisers collected all the bills that were due and skipped, leaving Marquand and Dewey & Co. in the lurch. These parties have called in the assistance of the police and expect to soon have the young man in custody. It is thought that he has returned to his old stamping grounds in the State of Washington.

Well Rendered.

"The Shadows of a Great City" was presented in a very satisfactory manner at the Oakland theater last evening and the players received constant applause.

As Annie and Helen Standish, May Nannary is entirely at home and her transition from the character of mother to daughter was very well done.

Andrew Waldron, the new comedian, is a success; as Jim Farren he won the gallery on his entrance and before he had finished "Say Au Revoir" in a clear strong tenor voice, he was voted all right.

Margaret Marshall is a delightfully humorous Biddy Ronan. Aside from an evident uncertainty of the "lines," Mr. McGregor was a pleasing Tom Cooper; both he and Mr. Hess displayed a lack of application.

Ed Nannary's Abe Nathan is worthy of mention and the balance were agreeable. A child disturbed the performance by crying throughout the prison scene from fright.

It is a highly entertaining play and will doubtless enjoy a very prosperous week.

They are making preparations at the Oakland for a big presentation of "The Coast Guard" in which a large tank containing 2000 gallons of water will be displayed. A number of other startling effects will be introduced.

Golden Gate.

E. H. Kennedy, the oil man, is going to erect new buildings on Market and Twenty-ninth streets for a new depot and manufactory for a new lantern which he has invented.

The fire at the Judson Works Saturday was caused by an overflow of gas from the retorts. It was extinguished by the chemical from Union street.

Mrs. Charles Blewett has presented her husband with a girl baby.

R. Jackson, the contractor, who resides on Adeline street, is just recovering from quite an illness.

S. O. Holmes is having his cottages on the west side of Adeline street above Thirty-second raised and basements placed under them.

There will be a stereopticon entertainment at the Fourth Congregational church Friday night. The subject is "A Trip Through Ireland."

Miss I. McIntosh of Oakland started a dancing academy at Taylor's Hall last evening.

GAZETTELETS.

Miss Bertha Hartman of San Diego is visiting friends in West Berkeley.

Captain Jacobs and his daughter Leith have been allowed by the Court to change their name to Jacobson.

The junior day farce, which was written by Misses Sherman and Redington, will be given in Shattuck Hall at 10 a. m. Saturday, November 30th.

The subject for the Carnot medal debate will be announced in a few days. It will be some question on constitutional law having special reference to French history and politics.

Railroad time from Chicago to San Francisco, commencing today by the Santa Fe route will be three and one-half days thus reducing the time one-half day.

Mrs. Caroline Cotton Martin of 2112 Dwight way, Berkeley, who is alleged to have given Charles M. Comstock jewels to the amount of $6500 upon misrepresentation, has information that the latter is under arrest at New York upon the above charge.

Beginning next Wednesday afternoon the ladies of the faculty will give monthly teas in Stiles Hall to the faculty, officers and students of the University. Last year these proved to be an important social feature of the college life.

The Berkeley Orchestral Society has completed the programme for the concert on Friday evening, and will have the services of Mary Mann-Brown, vocalist; C. W. Crabtree, cornetist and the California Quartet. Alexander T. Stewart will lead the orchestra, which has now an active membership of forty.

There was a very large meeting on Monday evening last in Hamilton Hall Oakland. Addresses were delivered by J. A. Lansing of Massachusetts, Mrs. M. E. Richardson and County Clerk Frank C. Jordan. It was held under the auspices of the American Protective Association.

General John B. Frisbie, says the Vallejo Chronicle, will soon return to that town to reside. In early days he married the daughter of the late M. G. Vallejo, and at one time was a large owner of Vallejo property. The General is a progressive man, and can do a great deal for the town. At present he is looking after his large mining interests in Mexico, which are supposed to be very valuable.

The hygienic value of soap is hardly realized by the general public. Recent experiments have shown that a solution of soap will kill typhoid or cholera microbes. A 1 per cent solution will do so in twelve honrs, while a 7 or 10 per cent solution will do it in a few minutes. This is about the simplest and most reliable means of disinfecting that we have at our disposal.

The many friends of the Berkeleyan, Theodore F. Sherwood, will no doubt be greatly pleased to hear that he has become a Benedick. He was united in marriage on October 12th, 1895, at Redlands, California, to Rosalie, the beautiful daughter of Mrs. Diana C. S. Childs. Everyone here wishes the newly wedded couple a long life of happiness and trust that nothing may mar the wish.

Attention has heretofore been called to Rod Cameron & Co's furniture establishment on the corner of University and San Pablo avenues. It was when the concern first opened its doors to the public. Since then constant additions have been made to their stock of goods as the trade might demand. They also are prepared to do all kinds of repairing in a neat and tasty manner and at a price that fits the work done. Many things can be repaired at a small expense which will last for a long time and save the expense of a new article. A penny saved is a penny earned in these hard times and is very applicable at the present time.

THE Marlborough wedding is to be a "white" one. The Vanderbilt checks will continue to be written with black ink.—Hayward Mail.

Wrong. Red ink will be used on this particular occasion on account of its being a "red letter" day with Consuelo.

MOVED TO TEARS

WERE THE SPECTATORS IN THE DURRANT TRIAL

By the Masterly Argument of Attorney Barnes Today—Durrant Smiled.

Special dispatches to the GAZETTE.

San Francisco, Oct. 30—Judge Murphy's court room was crowded today with people who were anxious to hear the closing argument of District Attorney Barnes in the celebrated Durrant case. A large squad of police guarded the hallways and entrance to the court room and the disgraceful scenes of yesterday were not repeated.

When the court opened Barnes arose and commenced his argument. He tried in a direct and impressive way to convince the jury of Durrant's guilt, then to gain the plaudits of the audience. Silence reigned as he referred to the awful crime and told of the disposition of the body. When he told in his logical way of the taking away of the body, there was not a dry eye in the audience except those of Durrant and he smiled his accustomed smile. A shudder of horror passed through the assemblage at this display on the part of the prisoner. Mrs. Noble, the aunt of Blanche Lamont, and her husband listened attentively to every word as it dropped from the District Attorney's lips and as he proceeded Mrs. Noble became so overcome that she was compelled to relieve herself by tears. As Mr. Barnes passed over the events of April 3d, from the time Durrant met Blanche Lamont until he took her to the church in the evening, the people present were spell bound. He said that whoever the person was who committed this awful crime was the person that went to the door of the belfrey. To go there he was necessarily one who had means of access at all times and at unusual hours—one who had keys to the different doors—one who could enter without suspicion of his motives or of his conduct, and that person was Theodore Durrant. Leading up to the crime, he said, to accomplish what this monster did required a man of an utterly abnormal nature and one of extraordinary strength of will and absolutely devoid of moral sense or moral philosophy, in fact a moral idiot. Durrant had shown himself to be just such a man ever since the day of his arrest. Such a man if he possessed any of the higher qualities, if confronted with the proof of his crime, which had shocked the whole civilized world, could and would act as the prisoner has done. How could any man smile in the awful presence of the relics of his victim?

The defense have asked what was the motive? What induced him to commit the murder? We have proved that this poor girl was murdered. Was she murdered without a motive? No, she was murdered for lust and it is that reason that I have dwelled upon inferences than that of any compact of murder.

Fighting a Liquor Ordinance.

Santa Ana, Oct. 30—Chris Miller, a saloon keeper who is making a test case of the Pomona liquor ordinance, was today taken before Superior Judge Towner on a writ of habeas corpus. The charge against Miller is violating section 5 of the ordinance, providing for the taking away of screens, chairs, tables, etc. Judge Towner released the defendant, and the case is therefore thrown out of court.

The other charge against Miller is for selling liquor without a license, which still stands. He was found guilty by a jury, but his attorney argued for a new trial. The petition was denied, and City Recorder Matthews fined the defendant $75. The attorney for the defendant has appealed the case to the Supreme Court. This case is attracting attention all along the Coast, as it is being fought by the State Liquor Association.

Run Over and Killed.

Chicago, Oct. 30—E. W. Cole, President of the Merchants and Bankers' Association of this city, was run over and fatally injured by a North Grand street cable car last evening. He was at once taken to the hospital where he died within an hour.

The Militia Called Out.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 30—Governor Clark has called out the First Regiment of the State Militia to stop the fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. The companies at Helena, Pine Bluff, Cabot and Jacksonville are ready to march this afternoon. The McCarthy Black Guard of Fletcher rifles and the Eagle Light Battery of this city have been notified to be ready for orders at any moment. The Helena Company of 48 men have 1000 rounds of ammunition and are preparing to start at once. It is thought that the fight will take place in spite of the Governor's opposition.

It Is Said.

That when West Berkeley gets its wharf, business will be lively in Berkeley in all its branches.

That Berkeley must have a new wharf if it wants business to come to it.

That the GAZETTE's new office attracts much attention from passers by on the railroad cars.

That the public is invited to call and inspect the GAZETTE in its new quarters. They are dandy ones and no mistake.

That the circulation of the GAZETTE is constantly on the increase because it is recognized on all sides as the only live and newsy paper in the town.

That a young man well known in South Berkeley, where he resides, was arrested in San Francisco the other night for violating the curfew ordinance.

That D. H. Bruns, one of the largest property owners in Berkeley, and the largest general merchandiser, says that unless West Berkeley has a wharf there is no use of doing business here.

That A. W. Bishop, formerly of the Oakland Times, does not know when he has got enough and that he will once more embark in the newspaper business by starting a new morning paper in Oakland.

That the large new oil tank being constructed to the west of the GAZETTE office, for the Alameda and Santa Barbara Development Company, is nearly completed, and oil will be pumped into it next week.

That the GAZETTE has moved into its new building on Third street, near Center street, where it has now one of the best appointed newspaper, book and job printing offices in the State. Friends and strangers also are invited to call and inspect the office.

That an effort is being made to get Mrs. Booth of the Salvation Army to speak at the First Presbyterian church in Berkeley upon her return from the south next month.

That readers of the GAZETTE should watch its columns every day and observe the new advertisements that are constantly appearing. If you consult our advertisers you may be sure that you will get the best value at the cheapest rates.

That Ed Brennen has not only smashed another looking glass, but he has smashed prices on all his groceries into so many fragments that the old ones cannot be recognized. Quick sales and small profits is his motto. Remember his store is on San Pablo avenue near University avenue.

There is one thing in this world that in order to give satisfaction has got to be perfect, and that is a photograph. Naturally the artist who is thorough in his business and produces perfect pictures gets the trade. This accounts for the immense business done by Evans, the photographer at 1065 Washington street. He takes the finest cabinets in the land for $3 per dozen and has a large Berkeley patronage.

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1895.

FOR BERKELEY'S PROSPERITY.

There can be no question but that a wharf owned by the town at West Berkeley will be of the greatest advantage to the upbuilding of all sections of Berkeley, and especially West Berkeley, and no person who has the interests of the town of Berkeley at heart should oppose the bonds. We have talked with people who oppose the bonds for a wharf for the reason that in course of time it will be given into the hands of some corporation who will have the absolute control of it while the people will have to pay for the bonds, interest on the same, and for keeping the wharf in repair. In support of this assertion they state that the people are now paying interest on $30,000 bonds that were issued to build and equip an electric light plant, which was leased to private parties.

This argument while good in the main will not hold good in the matter of the wharf, for the proposition is that the wharf shall always be and remain under the control of the town, and that it shall be used for public wharf purposes. This will settle the matter of it ever going into the hands of private parties or corporations.

That the wharf will be of benefit to Berkeley there is no gainsaying for it will bring to this side of the bay large manufacturing interests as well as a much larger population which means a greater increase in business. The Alameda and Santa Barbara Development Company which is composed of Berkeley people, have now commenced the shipment of crude petroleum from Summerland, Santa Barbara county, to West Berkeley where they have put in a large receiving tank. The shipments at the present time are being made by rail but in a very short time they will be made by steamer. This traffic alone will be of great profit to the new wharf. The commercial freight that is constantly coming to Berkeley as well as the large amount of coal, hay, grain, etc. would soon make the wharf a money making investment. Again had we a wharf there would be a regular ferry service between this city and San Francisco that would make things lively. This is not a supposition but is a fact as there is a gentleman, well known to all of our citizens, who resides at Piedmont, who stated yesterday that just as soon as the bonds were voted and the wharf was commenced he would make preparations for two ferry boats that would be ready as soon as the wharf was completed to ply between West Berkeley and San Francisco, making half-hourly trips. We can further state that there are other gentlemen, residents of Berkeley and San Francisco, who will build an electric road which will tap the Powder Works, Stege, San Pablo and other places, running direct to the West Berkeley ferry, and that already in anticipation of this road and the West Berkeley ferry, tracts of land are being subdivided into five-acre pieces, to be sold to persons who are doing business in San Francisco but who would like to own their own homes and grounds. These lands will be placed upon the market at a very low figure so that they will be within reach of all and it will not be long before we will have a population to the north of us that will be of great benefit to the town. We have the names of these people who desire to put on a line of ferry boats and will build the electric railroad, and will give them to the committee of the Board of Trustees in order that they may interview them. After that time we shall make them public, in order that the enemies of the wharf question may know that this statement is not a bluff.

The people of West Berkeley have publicly pledged themselves that they will support school bonds to the amount of $120,000, and they will keep their word. They have also pledged themselves to vote for $80,000 for a wharf, and have gone to work and got up the petition as required by law, and presented it to the Board of Trustees asking that body to call an election just as soon as possible and it is hoped that their wishes will be sustained. As these bonds are to be voted for separately there is no need for delay or to wait until the school bond question is ready. The wharf bond election should be called immediately and voted upon as this question is of the utmost importance to the whole town of Berkeley, and we hope that the committee appointed by the Board at its last meeting will be all ready to report at the next meeting and that they will recommend the immediate calling of an election for the purpose of voting $80 000 worth of bonds for the erection of a new wharf at West Berkeley.

CREDIT WHERE DUE.

It is well to give even C. P. Huntington fair play. The San Francisco Call hears that he has bought the great Glenn ranch, in Glenn county, with the purpose of sub-dividing in small tracts and selling them, and thereupon it assumes that Mr. Huntington does this through fear of the San Joaquin valley railroad. This is so far fetched as to be ridiculous. The San Joaquin valley railroad is not likely to make its advent in Glenn county, which is in the upper Sacramento valley, and, furthermore, Huntington began this policy of buying and sub-dividing large ranches before anybody thought of a new San Joaquin valley railroad. Mr. W. H. Mills and Mr. Huntington have been working on this idea, which will benefit both the railroad and the State of California, at least half a dozen years. The Call has a short memory if it does not recollect the correspondence on the subject which was printed some time ago. The Enquirer is not indifferent to the merits of Claus Spreckels as a developer of the State, but we do not propose to see him appropriate credit where it is not his due; when Huntington or any other man originates something which will be for the benefit of California, as well as for his own, the fact should be borne in mind. And subdivision of the soil is one af the most direct roads to economic improvement.—Enquirer.

Mrs. N. E. Williams, who conducts the Delaware street notion store, is doing a flourishing business. The reason for this is because she sells her goods at a small profit, and consequently sells a large amount. Toilet soap is sold three cakes for 25 cents; Coate's machine cotton, six spools for a quarter; tobacco of all kinds, three packages for 25 cents and all other goods in proportion. 156
